

EVENTS THAT POP

Work meetings don't have to be a dull affair with soggy sandwiches! Work parties and social events do more than just celebrate - they are a fun way to motivate your team and bring them together.

How we do it:

Once you've helped us understand the event you want, you can sit back, relax, and let us take the driver's seat. We manage the whole process, from planning to set up to clear up.

We'll curate a menu that's cooked from scratch just for you. Then, we'll deliver it fresh to your office from our kitchen in South Bermondsey. We incorporate local and seasonal ingredients in our cooking, so every canape, platter or slider is packed with freshness and flavour.

Our events team are THE experts for whipping up a successful workplace fiesta. They know how to bring the fun and cater to your unique company culture. If it's food to match the demands of a productive meeting, we've got that covered too.

WHAT WE OFFER:

We offer catering for every occasion to keep your office social calendar exciting.

The Meeting

Good food doesn't just belong at a party. Whether it is clinching the deal of the decade or an 'all hands' meeting, we energise your teams with inspiring food - choose from platters, individually packaged meals, deli sandwiches, salads or a full-blown lunch buffet.

The Pop Up

Want to shake things up at lunchtime? No better way to do it than with a pop up - inspired by street foods from around the world, our pop ups can be mobilised in the smallest of spaces, transforming your office into a foodie haven!

The Breakfast

Kick-start your day with a proper breakfast. Treat your team to wholesome breakfast pots, pastries, bagels or even a pancake pop up! Our breakfasts bring the team together and give them just the right fuel to start a productive day.

The Foodie Workshop

We've all been on corporate 'away' days for team-building exercises. Some think of them as corny, but done right they're a super fun way to help your team bond. We can do anything from tea blending to pasta making, baking or cocktail masterclasses.

The 'Drinks'

Every once in a while, a company should stop, take a breather and celebrate its success. We can cater for your event with carefully-curated wine and cheese, cocktail bars or even a mobile Prosecco tuk tuk!.

The Party

And sometimes, you need a proper party, with all the irresistible canapes and finger food. We'll make the night unforgettable. Want us to transform your office into a medieval banquet hall? A summer celebration? Or whatever theme you fancy? No problem!
